

Useful Careers Websites

Get in. Go Far. - Apprenticeships information.

Gov.uk - Careers guidance provision for young people in schools iCould - iCould is a small, dynamic charity, providing career inspiration and information for young people. We show what is possible in work and offer different ways to think about careers through free access to over 1000 personal video stories, detailed job information, plus practical tips, insight and advice.

The King's Trust - We help young people aged 13 to 30 get into jobs, education and training.

National Citizen Service - National Citizen Service (NCS) is an experience you really don't want to miss. If you're 15 to 17 years-old, this is your chance to embark on exhilarating challenges, make your mark and build skills for work and life. More than 200,000 young people have already said YES to NCS. Don't. Miss. Out.

The National Careers Service - provides information, advice and guidance to help you make decisions on learning, training and work opportunities. The service offers confidential and impartial advice. This is supported by qualified careers advisers.

UCAS - We provide application services across a range of subject areas and modes of study for UK higher education providers.

Career Pilot - Your choices at 14, 16 and 18, explore different job sectors and how you can study and work at the same time - even to university level.

Prospects – provides information on different job sectors, CV writing, Letter of Application